During the January 2006 SG 13 meeting in Geneva, ITU-T Q.4/13 (on requirements and framework for QoS for Next Generation Networks) produced a technically stable version of the draft Recommendation on Resource and Admission Control of Functions (RACF). We wish to bring to your attention this work. The latest draft is attached, which is targeted for entering the ITU-T approval process in July 2006.

Attachment: Latest draft of Y.racf (Ref. TD 81 Rev.1 (WP 4/13)) is available at:
