1	Staying in an IETF selected hotel helps offset the cost of the IETF.	Apr 17, 2012 8:27 AM
2	I live in Paris	Apr 17, 2012 5:01 AM
3	Hotel offered a complimentary cancellation.	Apr 16, 2012 3:00 AM
4	Didn't like the hotel the first time IETF was there.	Apr 13, 2012 5:17 AM
5	IETF Hotel	Apr 11, 2012 5:26 PM
6	cancelation policy was much better	Apr 11, 2012 9:17 AM
7	Our travel secretary made the booking, so I got stuck at the expensive conference hotel - anything else would have been better!	Apr 11, 2012 9:10 AM
8	Good review at trip advisor (better than concorde)	Apr 11, 2012 7:42 AM
9	Provided as part of the ISOC/IETF fellowship	Apr 11, 2012 7:35 AM
10	IETF hotel(s) booking and cancellation policy	Apr 11, 2012 6:54 AM
11	I've been in this hotel before, while not exactly close to the IETF meeting it has a very high quality/cost ratio.	Apr 11, 2012 5:11 AM
12	Concorde's rate was too high, and its cancellation policy ridiculous. Astrid's rate was reasonable, WiFI was great, and it was only a 10 minute walk away.	Apr 11, 2012 3:44 AM
13	wish to experience Paris life style	Apr 11, 2012 3:34 AM
14	Last time experience	Apr 11, 2012 1:54 AM
15	Always like to stay where ever the conference is	Apr 11, 2012 1:44 AM
16	Refused to use booking method for concorde (email/fax credit card number)	Apr 11, 2012 12:50 AM
17	Internet connectivity	Apr 10, 2012 8:28 PM
18	I expected Le Meridian would also have IETF network, but it did not. But the hotel wireless network in my room worked fine all week. (I first tried the wired network in my room, and it failed in ways similar to the main IETF hotel in Maastricht had failed. I was happy that the wireless network in Le Meridian worked so well. Whew.)	Apr 10, 2012 7:25 PM
19	privat	Apr 10, 2012 6:53 PM
20	Better hotel. The Concorde was already a bad hotel the previous time we were there	Apr 10, 2012 4:10 PM
21	It was the conference hotel, unfortunately. If the conference were there again, I'd choose other accomodations.	Apr 10, 2012 3:49 PM
22	Free WiFi	Apr 10, 2012 3:19 PM
23	Nicer hotel than the conference hotel and good experience in the past	Apr 10, 2012 2:46 PM

25 Once I'm "offsite", I might as well get a really good deal. I should have looked into a shared apartment. 26 It is unfortunate that the IETF no longer has a relationship to Hilton Hotels. 1	I live in Paris	Apr 17, 2012 5:01 AM
2	For the room I got, it was overpriced. I later found out that higher floor rooms were renovated. Mine had not even been painted for at least 10 years, water changed temperature constantly, etc, etc	Apr 16, 2012 1:39 PM
3	Different hotel yes, pay more no	Apr 16, 2012 12:03 PM
4	Lousy service	Apr 15, 2012 2:36 AM
5	The floor I was on looked like they'd only renovated half of it.	Apr 12, 2012 6:41 PM
6	Definitely. This was a HORRIBLE hotel.	Apr 11, 2012 5:26 PM
7	Concorde sucked	Apr 11, 2012 4:42 PM
8	Network issues and pickpockets, poor maintenance. All in all, a dump with problems. Avoid if possible	Apr 11, 2012 2:07 PM
9	Theft	Apr 11, 2012 10:37 AM
10	Paris is already too expensive.	Apr 11, 2012 7:50 AM

14	probably one paying less	Apr 11, 2012 3:41 AM
15	it was quite noisy at nights	Apr 11, 2012 3:34 AM
16	The hotel wasn't great and in-room Internet access sucked, but it was ok.	Apr 11, 2012 2:28 AM
17	The room I had was of lousy quality (worst in many many IETFs) and really in need of renovation. I hated to be unusually afraid of in-room theft.	Apr 11, 2012 2:20 AM
18	Le merdien was very good.	Apr 11, 2012 1:54 AM
19	Food options were poor, staff had sticky fingers	Apr 11, 2012 1:44 AM
20	so glad I didn't elect to stay in the concorde - they proved that they're a complete failure in every way possible except the actual act of providing a place to sleep	Apr 11, 2012 12:50 AM with the hotel per se, no need to get breakfast in a European city.

43	Beforehand, I would have liked to stay at the actual venue hotel but hearing about bad network and theft problems, I'm glad I was at Meridien.	Apr 10, 2012 12:34 PM
44	It was a nice hotel with fast Internet connection, staff was very helpful	Apr 10, 2012 12:30 PM
45	The hotel had a bland breakfast and security was an issue. Check-in took over an hour waiting in line.	Apr 10, 2012 12:24 PM
46	I stayed on the fourth floor, where there was no paneling on the walls in the hallway. The room was only marginally clean. Not even a teapot in the rooms. The bar was ridiculously expensive. I paid 8 EUR for a coke	Apr 10, 2012 12:23 PM
47	Le Meridian was 5 times more expensive than, say, an IBIS - which offeres about the same level of service.	Apr 10, 2012 12:23 PM
48	Been at other hotels where there were no incidents	Apr 10, 2012 12:22 PM
49	Room quality and theft concerns were primary issues. On the other hand, I guess I could see la Tour Eiffel from my room window.	Apr 10, 2012 12:21 PM
50	Rooms were of poor quality given the price paid; theft was a concern.	Apr 10, 2012 12:15 PM
51	The theft problems at the Concorde were epic, and I was one of the victims.	Apr 10, 2012 12:15 PM
52	Internet worked very poorly in the room; other hotel was very close.	Apr 10, 2012 12:13 PM
53	My hotel was pretty far; I was under the impression there were very few hotels close by but that was incorrect.	Apr 10, 2012 12:13 PM
54	maybe; room was tiny, service was lousy, internet sucked. No guarantee it'd be better elsewhere.	Apr 10, 2012 12:12 PM
55	The hotel was expensive, even with the IETF discount. I would have gone for a cheaper hotel.	Apr 10, 2012 12:11 PM
56	I would not pay more	Apr 10, 2012 12:10 PM
57	Hotel was expensive, but it's very useful to be next to the IETF meeting venue.	Apr 10, 2012 11:51 AM
58	The hotel was expensive considering the stay and value of the hotel.	Apr 10, 2012 11:49 AM
59	The Concorde was by far, the worst hotel ever.	Apr 10, 2012 11:47 AM
60	I would stay in another hotel, but not pay more. There are a lot of cheaper options with more value for the money.	Apr 10, 2012 11:46 AM
61	Not sure about the 'thief hysteria', but room size at the concorde wasn't impressive	Apr 10, 2012 11:46 AM
62	I was very happy with my choice. The hotel treated me extremely well (status helped!). The only downside was the longer trip to the conference, but that was	Apr 10, 2012 11:42 AM

Page 3, Q14. Knowing what you know now, would you have elected to stay at a different hotel, even if it meant paying more?

	balanced out when people wanted to get dinner closer to my hotel in the evenings.
63	problem with theft; hotel was over-priced for the rooms and service	Apr 10, 2012 11:41 AM
64	The room was substandard for a "business hotel" of this price range. Looks like they are used to a captive audience.	Apr 10, 2012 11:41 AM
65	Couldn't afford it.	Apr 10, 2012 11:39 AM
66	The Concorde hotel was really a bad choice; overpriced, small rooms, bad Internet connection, crowded breakfast, plus the thefts	Apr 10, 2012 11:39 AM
67	Small hotel, 25 rooms, excellent service, decent price, decent quality, no line for breakfast, no break-ins	Apr 10, 2012 11:39 AM
68	The Concorde is probably the worst large hotel I've stayed in. I have 20 years of regular business travel.	Apr 10, 2012 11:37 AM gone through"?

1	I live in Paris	Apr 17, 2012 5:01 AM
2	My room was too warm all the time, even with AC on	Apr 16, 2012 12:03 PM
3	Uncertain. Closet doors open etc the first two days.	Apr 14, 2012 2:02 PM
4	not that i noticed.	Apr 13, 2012 5:10 PM
5	Opposite in fact. I left my computer out and money in my bag and it was there when I returned. Happened 3 days in a row before I got worried what with all the emails about it.	Apr 12, 2012 6:41 PM
6	I also noticed the ever moving zippers on bags. Of course, the bags were always empty, so I didn't think much about it.	Apr 11, 2012 4:42 PN
7	it was a bit annoying that the house keeping staff attempted to get into the room very frequently if one forgets to post the do-not-disturb sign. (And I've heard incidence where the sign was ignored.) What were their intent for checking the room so frequently anyway?	Apr 11, 2012 1:00 PM
8	No loss, but bags were opened and searched on at least two occasions. Things were returned to wrong bags.	Apr 11, 2012 9:58 AN
9	We were very careful to keep everything locked up in the safe or suitcases, especially after reading the comments on the attendees list.	Apr 11, 2012 7:54 AN
10	After changing it directly after the arrival (the first room was not properly made up or the check-in desk messed up the names for my reservation), I had no problems with my room.	Apr 11, 2012 5:00 AN
11	A mysterious human tried to enter my room on afternoon but I was there.	Apr 11, 2012 1:44 AM
12	nothing was stolen, but I kept everything of value locked in safe all the time I was not in room. Upon returning to room, lights were turned on (even though I left DND sign up all week), zippers on suitcases were often in different positions than how I left them, etc.	Apr 10, 2012 11:21 Pl
13	I'm not sure, but I once experienced that I retruned to my room the door was opened.	Apr 10, 2012 10:41 PI
14	Someone tried to open the door of my room when I was there.	Apr 10, 2012 8:05 PN
15	Stuff seemed to be in different places than I remember. Also, I found the 'we could not make your room sign' on the bed even though the room had been made.	Apr 10, 2012 7:35 PN
16	I was in Le Meridian, and I am unaware that anyone had such problems in Le Meridian.	Apr 10, 2012 7:25 PM
17	not applicable	Apr 10, 2012 6:53 PM
18	Zips moved, nothing stolen. I am not happy with having to carry 5kg+ of backpack with all my valueables and half of my electronics for 5 days.	Apr 10, 2012 5:31 PM

Page 3, Q15. Did you experience any theft or incidence of your guest room having been "gone through"?
19	We left everything of value in the in-room safe. Once reports of theft began to surface, we left suitcases locked with valuables inside and with zippers in predetermined locations to detect theft. When elected to forgo room service for several days to prevent access. We left radios/TVs/laptops playing music/audio when we left. To our knowledge, no issues.	Apr 10, 2012 3:49 PM
20	I had no problems with my room that gave me any concern.	Apr 10, 2012 3:32 PM
21	You don't run this risk in a B&B	Apr 10, 2012 1:41 PM
22	As far as I know, on my floor the cleaning staff was acting to the normal protocol. When I wanted to enter the room when it was beel cleaned I was asked to show that my key actually worked on the door.	Apr 10, 2012 1:22 PM
23	But everybody I know at the Concorde had problems.	Apr 10, 2012 1:12 PM
24	From what I read, I'm pleased I did not stay at le Meridien or Concorde. This was not a problem at the hotel I stayed at.	Apr 10, 2012 1:09 PM
25	There was a glitch with laundry, but that was a misunderstanding. I asked for a laundry bag to be delivered to the room (which was supposed to be in the room) and when the person brought the bag, they scooped up the laundry that was out and had it washed. I had intended to send more, and do it the following day.	Apr 10, 2012 12:39 PM
26	No theft.	Apr 10, 2012 12:29 PM
27	One evening when I came back, door was open (no signs of intrusion)	Apr 10, 2012 12:29 PM
28	But I did see people being forceably removed from the lobby on two occasions.	Apr 10, 2012 12:23 PM
29	Yes, it was gone through, but nothing taken since everything was locked or pockets were already empty to begin with.	Apr 10, 2012 12:22 PM
30	Not detected.	Apr 10, 2012 12:15 PM
31	Maid took room key on two occasions.	Apr 10, 2012 12:15 PM
32	Nearly US$1,000 of items were removed from my room.	Apr 10, 2012 12:15 PM
33	Someone tried to pick pocket me between the palais and the metro but I caught him. (If this was specific to hotel rooms that should have been more clear.)	Apr 10, 2012 12:13 PM
34	The doors didn't lock like normal doors, so Paying Attention was required. Also, the maid once left the master key in our room (!!)	Apr 10, 2012 12:12 PM
35	lobby staff even recognized me from day 2 onwards.	Apr 10, 2012 12:10 PM
36	But strange knock at door.	Apr 10, 2012 12:09 PM
37	that was at "the other" hotel	Apr 10, 2012 12:08 PM
38	Hate this hotel, not safe	Apr 10, 2012 12:08 PM
39	I lost money.	Apr 10, 2012 11:47 AM

Page 3, Q15. Did you experience any theft or incidence of your guest room having been "gone through"?
40	I even left my kindle and bose headphones out the first 2 days	Apr 10, 2012 11:42 AM
41	Had somebody enter room with a card key while I was in it. Confirmed with hotel it was not hotel staff.	Apr 10, 2012 11:41 AM
42	I had 5 other sharing the room with me in the hostel, nothing was touched.	Apr 10, 2012 11:39 AM
43	That is inadmissible for any hotel.	Apr 10, 2012 11:39 AM

2	The safe was big enough for my laptop, this is important.	Apr 16, 2012 12:13 PM
3	Took all valuable belongings with me.	Apr 14, 2012 2:02 PM
4	After 4 days.	Apr 12, 2012 6:41 PM
5	However, after becoming suspicious and then hearing about thefts, I elected to take anything of value with me at all times.	Apr 11, 2012 5:26 PM
6	sometimes, not always	Apr 11, 2012 12:30 PM
7	As always.	Apr 11, 2012 2:20 AM
8	I believe any hotel we choose in the future this MUST be mandatory in-room feature!!!	Apr 10, 2012 11:21 PM
9	It doesn't work!	Apr 10, 2012 9:24 PM
10	None was provided	Apr 10, 2012 8:07 PM
11	safe looked dysfunctional	Apr 10, 2012 8:00 PM
12	I did wish that the in-room safe had been larger so that my laptop computer might have fit in it.	Apr 10, 2012 7:25 PM
13	not applicable	Apr 10, 2012 6:53 PM
14	Once the reports started, we always locked everything of value in the safe.	Apr 10, 2012 6:35 PM
15	What's the point if personnel has access to it too	Apr 10, 2012 5:31 PM
16	Carried valuables around myself.	Apr 10, 2012 4:53 PM
17	That makes it way too easy to find your valuables	Apr 10, 2012 4:10 PM
18	Had an issue on the last night. Safe wouldn't open. Took two calls, one visit to Concierge and 1.5 hours to get security to open. They say we overstuffed the safe, but it was no different from any other day. Safe threw SER code, which could have been from tampering, or just jammed lock.	Apr 10, 2012 3:49 PM
19	it was not working	Apr 10, 2012 3:43 PM

22	It jammed and I had to get the staff to override the lock.	Apr 10, 2012 1:18 PM
23	No safe. But the door was fortress-like.	Apr 10, 2012 1:12 PM
	I carried my valuables with me all the time.	Apr 10, 2012 12:49 PM

Page 3	Q16. Did you use an in-room safe
25	however, i locked my valuables in my suitcase	Apr 10, 2012 12:45 PM
26	I carried passports, electronics, and such with me. The only valuables in the room were my clothing.	Apr 10, 2012 12:39 PM
27	For medicine, mostly. Sometimes my passport.	Apr 10, 2012 12:34 PM
28	I usually take everything with	Apr 10, 2012 12:29 PM
29	It was too small and inconveniently located (too high for easy access).	Apr 10, 2012 12:21 PM
30	The safe was non-functional	Apr 10, 2012 12:15 PM
31	Only as I left my iPad in my room during the day	Apr 10, 2012 12:14 PM
32	but only after the warnings - never have at any previous IETF	Apr 10, 2012 12:12 PM
33	but safe too small for laptop	Apr 10, 2012 12:10 PM
34	Initially, it was broken and I left my money in the pocket of a jacket. It was gone after only 2 hours	Apr 10, 2012 11:47 AM
35	Safe was not large enough for a laptop.	Apr 10, 2012 11:44 AM
36	I also have a personal safety back that can be anchored in the room	Apr 10, 2012 11:44 AM
37	Safe was too small	Apr 10, 2012 11:43 AM
38	There wasn't one.	Apr 10, 2012 11:39 AM
39	not available at this hotel	Apr 10, 2012 11:39 AM

	Q17. Did you leave valuables at the hotel front desk for security?
1	Never see a reason for doing it.	Apr 30, 2012 5:02 AM
2	Prefer to use in-room safe	Apr 27, 2012 2:54 PM
3	Room safe	Apr 19, 2012 8:11 AM
4	In-room safe covered my needs.	Apr 18, 2012 11:23 AM
5	Used the safe at the room/did not leave valuables unattended in the room. Was not aware of the option to leave valuables at fron desk/have never used that option.	Apr 18, 2012 4:42 AM
6	I carried them with myself.	Apr 18, 2012 2:39 AM
7	I carried them or locked them up in room safe.	Apr 17, 2012 9:05 AM
8	Because I live in Paris	Apr 17, 2012 5:01 AM
9	bring them with me	Apr 16, 2012 9:31 PM
10	Nothing that warranted doing so.	Apr 16, 2012 1:37 PN
11	Did not have anything valuable	Apr 16, 2012 12:03 Pl
12	Took all valuable belongings with me.	Apr 14, 2012 2:02 PN
13	I used in-room safe, or carried them with me, only time I left something valuable in the room outside the safe was during the breakfasts, as my laptop didn't fit into the in-room safe.	Apr 12, 2012 7:28 AN
14	Did not trust them.	Apr 11, 2012 5:26 PM
15	Used in-room safe. I had stuff stolen from concierges in the past in Paris.	Apr 11, 2012 4:42 PM
16	This should NOT be necessary. We don't have this problem usually.	Apr 11, 2012 2:07 PN
17	The only things worth stealing were my passport (on my person) and laptop (backed up and encrypted - plus cheap).	Apr 11, 2012 9:10 AN
18	It's too inconvenient, plus there was a safe in the room.	Apr 11, 2012 7:54 AM
19	because of in-room safe	Apr 11, 2012 7:42 AM
20	Mostly carried with me or locked it in my personal luggage	Apr 11, 2012 7:35 AM
21	I feel lucky	Apr 11, 2012 6:42 AM
22	The safe seemed to be safe enough	Apr 11, 2012 6:28 AM
23	used in-room safe or carried valuables with me	Apr 11, 2012 4:43 AM
24	No need to (was NOT at the Concorde).	Apr 11, 2012 3:44 AM
25	I have none or: preferrred to have them with me	Apr 11, 2012 3:34 AM

26	Inconvenient to leave at front desk, with long wait and rude personnel. And only	Apr 11, 2012 3:23 AM
20	laptop is valuable, and don't leave without it.	Αρι 11, 2012 3.23 Alv
27	not trust	Apr 11, 2012 12:35 AM
28	No valuables.	Apr 11, 2012 12:10 AM
29	Used safe	Apr 10, 2012 11:28 PM
30	didn't trust hotel staff to secure anything of mine. This isn't just a Paris thing, I never trust anything to the hotel staff anywhere. What are they going to say? "oops" or "are you sure you left your valuables with us?"	Apr 10, 2012 11:21 PN
31	Not convenient.	Apr 10, 2012 10:56 PM
32	Always bring valuables with me	Apr 10, 2012 10:53 PM
33	Never done that.	Apr 10, 2012 9:28 PM
34	I took all my valuables with me.	Apr 10, 2012 8:58 PM
35	Inconvenient	Apr 10, 2012 8:07 PM
36	Always had valuables with me, laptop/ipad/passport	Apr 10, 2012 8:00 PM
37	not applicable	Apr 10, 2012 6:53 PN
38	After reports of luggage handling that didn't meet normal security precautions, I would have no reason to believe the front desk would be any better at securing my valuables.	Apr 10, 2012 6:35 PM
39	Felt they were adequately secured in the safe, or with me	Apr 10, 2012 6:29 PM
40	I don't take much valuables when I travel	Apr 10, 2012 6:28 PM
41	The in-room safe is enough	Apr 10, 2012 6:06 PM
42	Didn't feel any need for that	Apr 10, 2012 5:07 PN
43	Didn't have any, and anyway I never have done that.	Apr 10, 2012 5:07 PN
44	Why would I trust the front desk?	Apr 10, 2012 4:53 PN
45	always carried them with me.	Apr 10, 2012 4:13 PN
46	No confidence in the hotel security systems	Apr 10, 2012 3:18 PN
47	Kept valuables on my person at all times.	Apr 10, 2012 3:14 PN
48	I thought the room safe was the more secure place, other than keeping them with me. In the Concorde it was not unreasonable to assume that hotel staff was involved at some level, so I doubt that leaving valuables at the front desk was safer.	Apr 10, 2012 3:06 PN age 3	Q17. Did you leave valuables at the hotel front desk for security?

49	Too easy to get confused and leave something behind	Apr 10, 2012 2:50 PM
50	I don't carry many valuables and I expect a hotel that expensive to be safe enough for my passport, computer etc.	Apr 10, 2012 2:44 PN
51	Used safe. inconvenience of leaving items at front desk	Apr 10, 2012 2:12 PM
52	I felt the room safe was sufficient for my needs, and I trust the Hilton brand.	Apr 10, 2012 1:58 PM
53	I carry valuables with me.	Apr 10, 2012 1:41 PI
54	I considered the hotel safe to be sufficient	Apr 10, 2012 1:25 Pl

The location of Terminal Room was too good so too many people were there. Apr 10, 2012 10:41 Pi	19	Thanks for Chris, Hans and all the others who worked so hard to fix the hotel	Apr 10, 2012 11:28 PM
	20	worst IETF and Hotel network since Oslo (IETF 45) in 1999.	Apr 10, 2012 11:21 PM

Page 3, Q18. How would you rate the wireless service, the NOC, help desk and terminal room.
23	Not much space in terminal room	Apr 10, 2012 8:07 PM
24	Open air terminal room seemed 'odd'.	Apr 10, 2012 8:00 PM
25	Wireless fairness is such a hard problem to solve ;-)	Apr 10, 2012 7:35 PM
26	termroom inadequate for work	Apr 10, 2012 7:18 PM
27	Wireless was a bit slow and difficult to start, but once it became the ietf network, it seemed fine.	Apr 10, 2012 6:35 PM
28	Best terminal room ever, because it was open and right next to the registration desk. Very supportive of socializatino. Highly recommend something like this at future IETF meetings.	Apr 10, 2012 6:29 PM
29	Wireless near the meeting rooms was very good.	Apr 10, 2012 5:07 PM
30	The Help Desk guys were great! Very helpful and friendly!	Apr 10, 2012 4:29 PM
31	I don't understand why we still have a terminal room, or if we don't really have one anymore, we should stop using the term and call it our internet cafe or something like that	Apr 10, 2012 4:10 PM
32	The network was atrocious to begin with. However, after much work, Chris and company got it working quite well. Would have preferred the IETF network be left up through the weekend, but understand its being taken down.	Apr 10, 2012 3:49 PN
33	The wireless was great at the convention centre. It was not good in the guest rooms.	Apr 10, 2012 3:47 PN
34	More table space with more power would have been especially helpful.	Apr 10, 2012 3:40 PM
35	The wireless improved over the week after starting out nearly unusable.	Apr 10, 2012 3:32 PN
36	Wireless at the conference center was very good, as usual. The ietf-hotel network never worked in my room at the Concorde.	Apr 10, 2012 3:06 PN
37	Good in the Palais, bad in the Concorde	Apr 10, 2012 2:50 PM
38	Do you mean wireless in the hotel, or wireless in the venue?	Apr 10, 2012 1:22 PM
39	The hotel network on the (high) floor my room was, was louzy in the beginning but got better later half way the week	Apr 10, 2012 1:22 PN
40	I found the terminal room pretty crowded pretty much anytime I wanted to be there, even with the overflow tables and chairs that appeared during the week.	Apr 10, 2012 1:14 PN
41	Terminal area was pretty crowded and hard to get power in.	Apr 10, 2012 1:12 PN
42	"Terminal room", which I assume means the tables near IETF registration, we're too crowded.	Apr 10, 2012 1:09 PN
43	In the conference facility, wireless was very good. The Le Meridien wireless was pretty good (Mon/Tues nights), the Concorde was pretty bad (Wed/Thurs nights).	Apr 10, 2012 1:05 PN

4	the first 2 days was pretty bad, but afterwards it was excellent	Apr 10, 2012 12:45
5	Terminal Room was occasionally slightly crowded. A few more tables might help.	Apr 10, 2012 12:44
6	Really loved the Terminal Room being open.	Apr 10, 2012 12:42
7	In this I'm referring to the wireless in the venue. In the hotel, on the 11th floor, it was not available.	Apr 10, 2012 12:39
.8	Coverage at venue wasn't as good as years past. Hotel wireless wasn't IETF at Meridien, to my knowledge.	Apr 10, 2012 12:34
9	Network was working ok, so there was no need to contact NOC or help desk.	Apr 10, 2012 12:30
0	Terminal room was adequate workspace, nothing wonderful.	Apr 10, 2012 12:22
51	I used the wi-fi extensively, had a good experience, and needed no assistance. Pretty flawles actually. Speed was good, which is pretty good considering the number of users.	Apr 10, 2012 12:21
52	Some part of the main venue lobby were not covered	Apr 10, 2012 12:14
3	A quiet terminal room would have been preferable.	Apr 10, 2012 12:13
54	Wireless sucked but then got much better. Terminal Room was a "free speech pen" and way too small.	Apr 10, 2012 12:12
55	You don't need to contact the NOC when the service is perfect. Thanks NOC team for not requiring me to contact you :-)	Apr 10, 2012 12:12
66	The wifi in the venue was good but not as good than in other IETFs. In the hotel was very bad but that is not surprise	Apr 10, 2012 11:47
57	terminal room could have used more space and provided more seats; round table seating areas help getting work done	Apr 10, 2012 11:46
8	Terminal room too small	Apr 10, 2012 11:45
9	Terminal room was a bit noisy but easily accessible.	Apr 10, 2012 11:44
0	not enough seats in terminal "room"	Apr 10, 2012 11:44
51	More seating would be helpful	Apr 10, 2012 11:42
2	dedicated room as terminal room, as in other venues, would be better than the setup in the palais de congres	Apr 10, 2012 11:41
3	As far as I could tell there wasn't much (any?) communication about printer logistics. I worked it out; it wasn't THAT hard. But a cheat sheet would have been welcome.	Apr 10, 2012 11:39
64	Wireless was much better once it got "fixed"	Apr 10, 2012 11:37

Page 3	Page 3, Q18. How would you rate the wireless service, the NOC, help desk and terminal room.
65	Wireless was crappy in the hotel, fine at the IETF.	Apr 10, 2012 11:37 AM
66	wireless improvements were impressive	Apr 10, 2012 11:36 AM

Page 3, Q19. The IAOC uses survey results in its evaluation of the meeting venue's performance. How would you rate the following?
1	I think using the quality of the Internet service in the hotel room as a key metric for the meeting a very slippery slope that will restrict even further your venue choices going forward.	Apr 17, 2012 8:27 AM
2	Hotel wifi went from very poor to good-very good so averaging on fair.	Apr 14, 2012 2:02 PM
3	Too cold in the rooms.	Apr 13, 2012 12:25 PM
4	The food at this venue should set the bar for other meetings. The IESG breakfasts and lunches were really good. Did you get to see the pastry dishes.	Apr 12, 2012 6:41 PM
5	The rooms were quite small, there were several power outages and loosing power from projector can really cause trouble. The chairs were too close to each other, meaning it was hard to keep laptop on your lap, when someone was sitting in front of you. There was no self-service for getting drinks which was quite annoying, also the cookies etc seemed to be running out quite early.	Apr 12, 2012 7:28 AM
6	more non-animal based protein would be nice	Apr 11, 2012 12:30 PM
7	It was very difficult to find a quiet corner to have a conference call or meeting with a small group.	Apr 11, 2012 9:10 AM
8	The Palais is rather big for an IETF meeting, which makes it somewhat "cold".	Apr 11, 2012 8:03 AM
9	Wireless and wired in the room were both unusable for several days, and even once fixed, it was still marginal at times. Hotel Internet issues should have been settled prior to the meeting start. That should be true for all meetings. The meeting rooms didn't have enough tables at the front of the room.	Apr 11, 2012 7:54 AM
10	food and beverage was the most basic I have seen since more than 2 years	Apr 11, 2012 5:00 AM
11	Palais is a reasonable, but not a great venue.	Apr 11, 2012 3:44 AM
12	meeting rooms too small. water ran out in meeting rooms. staff serving coffee leads to long queues. terminal room & other desks 'in the open' quite nice	Apr 11, 2012 3:41 AM
13	pity that meeting rooms where not available after 8 p.m. for bar BoFs	Apr 11, 2012 3:34 AM
14	Food service was very quick to discontinue service and even beverages run out during most breaks. Lack of sufficient hot water for tea.	Apr 11, 2012 2:16 AM
15	Palais had recurring problems with power not working in parts of the rooms	Apr 11, 2012 12:50 AM
16	I did not use the food&beverage stands, as the breaks were busy with talks. As said earlier, internet in my room was equivalent to none. Palais meeting facility felt like a warehouse, especially when sharing with other groups, maybe we should use a more compact place. However, the basement part with shops was great, hence the 'fair' score.	Apr 10, 2012 7:35 PM
17	Had problems with audio streaming in several meeting rooms.	Apr 10, 2012 6:29 PM
18	Was so crowded I could not get anything to drink.	Apr 10, 2012 5:07 PM

Page 3, Q19. The IAOC uses survey results in its evaluation of the meeting venue's performance. How would you rate the following?
19	Breaks were very brief and few choices. The staff wasn't too friendly.	Apr 10, 2012 4:29 PM
20	The facility was old but spacious and perfectly sized for our group	Apr 10, 2012 4:10 PM
21	Most of our dining was outside the hotel. The lounge was seedy and service was poor. The staff was inattentive (even for the French) and rude. The ONLY poor service I received in Paris was from the lounge staff.	Apr 10, 2012 3:49 PM
22	Some meeting rooms were poorly sized for the attendance.	Apr 10, 2012 3:32 PM
23	Internet in hotel improved during the week	Apr 10, 2012 3:18 PM
24	The rows were so close in some of the meeting rooms that movement in/out to the mike to talk was impossible. That's not good for collaboration. The food and beverage at breaks was insufficient.	Apr 10, 2012 3:06 PM
25	we had so much space there we could have had some food/beverage provider available all day?	Apr 10, 2012 2:02 PM
26	The internet service at the Hilton La Defense was great.	Apr 10, 2012 1:58 PM
27	Some staff were a bit gruff and grudging (with notable exceptions)	Apr 10, 2012 1:41 PM
28	Bad wireless reception in my room (Meridien). Many Palais rooms were a bit too small and hot. Centralized food&beverage service didn't work well, way too crowded and not enough quantities served.	Apr 10, 2012 1:35 PM
29	The meeting facility lacked comfortable places to sit, meet up, or chat. The general area in Quebec City was much better for meeting up and having ad-hoc discussion.	Apr 10, 2012 1:30 PM
30	The hotel network was so blocked that pretty much nothing worked!	Apr 10, 2012 1:22 PM
31	:Fair" in the room but see after a lot of problems in the beginning	Apr 10, 2012 1:22 PM
32	Having people serve us beverages individually is SO un-IETF :-)	Apr 10, 2012 1:14 PM
33	Waiting for servers to poor tiny drink glasses was a huge time-suck.	Apr 10, 2012 1:12 PM
34	Lack of serviced water stations.	Apr 10, 2012 1:09 PM
35	Concorde internet was minimally usable, the Le Meridien was better.	Apr 10, 2012 1:05 PM
36	Chairs too close in mtg rooms (no room for knees, laptops hitting person in previous row, impossible to get in and out); power unreliable in some rooms	Apr 10, 2012 1:04 PM
37	I only got coffee during one of the afternoon breaks. The staff were rude and coffee was out on the other days.	Apr 10, 2012 12:49 PM
38	Meeting rooms weren't always open at 0800 yet.	Apr 10, 2012 12:44 PM
39	Some of the allocated meeting rooms were way too small, the food and beverages were also underdimensioned.	Apr 10, 2012 12:40 PM

Page 3, Q19. The IAOC uses survey results in its evaluation of the meeting venue's performance. How would you rate the following?
40	Took too long to get coffee in the beverage breaks. If it takes 20 mins to get coffee in a 10 minute break it does not work. Self service please.	Apr 10, 2012 12:31 PM
41	They knew to supply enough black tea!	Apr 10, 2012 12:22 PM
42	Stayed offsite at a hotel that provided its own Internet, which worked fine.	Apr 10, 2012 12:22 PM
43	Chris' re-engineering of the wireless network was impressive. The inability of the hotel to move data quickly to the upper floors was disappointing.	Apr 10, 2012 12:15 PM
44	F&B on average seems to be in decline.	Apr 10, 2012 12:14 PM
45	WiFi in the hotel didn't work on the first day.	Apr 10, 2012 12:14 PM
46	The chairs were torture devices.	Apr 10, 2012 12:13 PM
47	Very annoying that you had to ask for small servings of soft drinks, having cans or bottles available would be better.	Apr 10, 2012 12:13 PM
48	Need to have more water available throughout the facility and the day.	Apr 10, 2012 12:12 PM
49	I hate when they remove stuff so quickly.	Apr 10, 2012 12:10 PM
50	Had to queue to get tiny cup of cold drink. Only one row of desks in most meeting rooms.	Apr 10, 2012 12:09 PM
51	Some times some elevators in Palais de Congres didn't function.	Apr 10, 2012 11:58 AM
52	Less food and beverage than usual due to breakfast being included with the hotel	Apr 10, 2012 11:51 AM
53	We do need servers to dispense coffee and water. It would be cheaper and easy to provide more beverages without a server. I found I bought a lot of Starbucks.	Apr 10, 2012 11:46 AM
54	no complaints about staff per se, but manual intervention - instead of serving bottles/self service delayed the whole break; meeting facilities obviously provided surplus of space, only little of which was used for the breaks so that those became incredibly crowded; seating space in the meeting rooms was less than inner european flights wher it is known in advance that people bring bags and laptops	Apr 10, 2012 11:46 AM
55	There should be beverages and cookies available also during short breaks. Unfriendly personnel for food and beverages.	Apr 10, 2012 11:45 AM
56	Meeting space was dingy. But functional!	Apr 10, 2012 11:44 AM
57	Why were there so few chairs in the public meeting areas?	Apr 10, 2012 11:43 AM
58	Prefer to have IETF breakfast	Apr 10, 2012 11:43 AM
59	More soft drinks would be nice.	Apr 10, 2012 11:41 AM
60	The hotel wireless network was very poor at first. It became mostly useable do	Apr 10, 2012 11:41 AM the heroics of Chris and the NOC. The venue provided snacks were pretty good, but the availability of sodas and water were poor. (Please recommend against venues providing "bartenders" to poor small glasses of beverages). Venue staff seemed to intentionally create crowd flow bottlenecks during snack times. It got better later in the week.

61	congress hall not very cosy, noisy!	Apr 10, 2012 11:39 AM
62	I rated Palais facilities 'poor' because the Monday meeting in 242AB started with no lavalier mics and no video or power cables for the projector. Through miraculous work by WG members and Secretariat staff, the meeting started almost-on-time anyway, but it's beyond belief that the venue missed this.	Apr 10, 2012 11:39 AM
63	Not having a sponsor had an impact on the food and beverages provided at the break. Self-service drink service would have been nicer than having small cups filled by a venue staff member.	Apr 10, 2012 11:39 AM

Page 3,	Q20. How would you rate the following?
1	Some meeting rooms (RTCWEB in particular, but also MMUSIC) were severely under-dimensioned for the number of actual attendees.	Apr 19, 2012 8:11 AM
2	Some power strips did not work well	Apr 13, 2012 4:01 AM
3	Secretariat staff were as always excellent!	Apr 11, 2012 11:21 AM
4	AV was not ready in first session on monday. had to call to get microphones and such. (trill WG)	Apr 11, 2012 7:10 AM
5	sometimes the power strips had no power	Apr 11, 2012 5:00 AM
6	Many meeting rooms where too small. Air conditioning was too hot for me to be comfortable.	Apr 11, 2012 3:08 AM
7	things just worked as expected	Apr 11, 2012 2:28 AM
8	In several meeting rooms there was issues with the wireless microphones.	Apr 11, 2012 2:16 AM
9	see previous	Apr 11, 2012 12:50 AM
10	during my WG meeting the audio streaming/recording failed (which was very bad for remote participants). Should not happen.	Apr 10, 2012 11:51 PM
11	Lighting in plenary room should not have been so dark. Best if plenary lighting is full bright, like at most IETF meetings.	Apr 10, 2012 7:25 PM
12	power strips ok except in public areas in general, the public areas were very unfriendly	Apr 10, 2012 7:18 PM
13	The rooms seemed to have high-powered, professional projectors permanently installed behind panes of glass. It seems odd that we suffered through the use of portable projectors with better equipment visibly available.	Apr 10, 2012 12:15 PM
14	Some of the rooms had terrible projectors or the projector screen was not elevated enough to be seen from the rear of the room.	Apr 10, 2012 12:14 PM
15	Display was rarely straight, projectors sometimes in the way.	Apr 10, 2012 12:13 PM
16	Many power strips blew.	Apr 10, 2012 12:09 PM
17	Secretariat staff is always amazing!	Apr 10, 2012 11:44 AM
18	We held a side meeting on Sunday and the staff was extremely helpful!	Apr 10, 2012 11:42 AM
19	The working group I chair had problems with the audio stream. It was fixed about 15 minutes into the meeting, but inconvenienced a number of remote participants for the first quarter of the meeting.	Apr 10, 2012 11:41 AM
20	Some power strips in 241 did not work	Apr 10, 2012 11:40 AM
21	Impossible to edit typos in the registration form, once it is submitted	Apr 10, 2012 11:40 AM

1	Too much noise and talkative people on the 83all list (As always!)	Apr 30, 2012 5:02 AM
2	I would like splitting the attendees list into two lists - one for announcements and one for chit-chat on tourist attractions, restaurants and the like. I get snowed under the sheer amount of chit-chat e-mail in the list	Apr 15, 2012 2:36 AM
3	83attendees is too much noise from teenage-behaving travellers.	Apr 14, 2012 2:02 PM
4	Did not subscribe to the rest of the aliases.	Apr 12, 2012 10:00 AM
5	83attendees: subscription is a form of masochism	Apr 11, 2012 9:17 AM
6	Excessively garrulous discussions and careless questions (stupid questions or answer readily available with even a cursory Internet search) render 83Attendees list nearly useless. Not IETF fault Attendees should think about the value or their contribution. Real requests (e.g. ride shares), recommendations, and the OCCASIONAL funny comment stream would be better.	Apr 11, 2012 7:50 AM
7	83attendees is too chatty	Apr 11, 2012 7:10 AM
8	83Attendees was full of useless discussion. Please distribute all relevant info through some other lists.	Apr 11, 2012 3:46 AM
9	Don't subscribe to the attendees list anymore because of extremely poor signal-to-noise ratio	Apr 11, 2012 2:28 AM
10	Americans (I am one) seem to not be able to handle world travel. The s/n on the attendees list is difficult.	Apr 10, 2012 11:28 PM
11	if nothing else, the amusement value was high	Apr 10, 2012 7:18 PM
12	The 83all announcemnts contained lots of info, and only some of the data changed between postings. As is done with IETF drafts, a diff to highlight the changes would have made the postings more useful.	Apr 10, 2012 6:35 PM
13	83attendees: what a waste of bandwidth	Apr 10, 2012 6:28 PM
14	83Attendees was good but sometimes plagued (predictably) with people posting unnecessary semi-clever stuff.	Apr 10, 2012 5:07 PM
15	Meh. Not bad but, not worth much.	Apr 10, 2012 4:29 PM

17	83attendees was too busy.	Apr 10, 2012 2:02 PM
18	Too much traffic on attendee list. People need to use more discretion with what they post else the list becomes too busy to be useful (i.e. hard to bit out useful bits of info)	Apr 10, 2012 1:58 PM pickpockets and other topics that were no longer relevant to attendees. I like the idea of the list I just wish people would better respect that messages are going to ALL attendees. Perhaps there is a need for a "83Discussion" list for people who want to discuss items.

20	Relatively low S/N ratio on 83attendees, but that's fairly normal.	Apr 10, 2012 1:22 PM
21	The attendees whine too much. Iy seens some US people loose their brain the moment they cross a border	Apr 10, 2012 1:22 PM
22	Too much idle chat on 83attendees.	Apr 10, 2012 12:44 PM
23	Was a note put out pointing to mtd@? I could have used the service Monday AM (needed a power outlet by chair's table in my meeting room) and didn't recall the list.	Apr 10, 2012 12:39 PM
24	83attendees was very entertaining.	Apr 10, 2012 12:30 PM
25	Very useful practical information on 83Attendees.	Apr 10, 2012 12:22 PM
26	As always, we all know that the attendees list gets filled with noise and gripes. That said, (1) it was better this time than most at giving useful information and (2) we shouldn't try to "fix" it, because it won't work, and we only risk making it worse.	Apr 10, 2012 12:21 PM
27	The attendees lists are frequently useful, but the signal-to-noise ratio remains low.	Apr 10, 2012 12:15 PM
28	Attendees list full of the usual repetitive questions. It amazes me that smart people can't travel without a mailing list safety net	Apr 10, 2012 12:14 PM
29	Volume on 83attendees was too high.	Apr 10, 2012 12:13 PM

Page 3, you?	Q23. The EDU Team arranged for the following classes during the meeting. Were	these classes useful to
1	Did not go through the tutorials.	Apr 12, 2012 10:00 AM
2	It's a great idea to provide an overview of one or two AREAS (e.g. Ops and Management) at each IETF. Good for seasoned IETFers too.	Apr 11, 2012 7:50 AM
3	the OAM tutorial could have given a better overview of why OAM matters and what the key issues are.	Apr 11, 2012 3:41 AM
4	Repeat the Meetecho tutorial	Apr 11, 2012 3:17 AM
5	Draft Tool session needs to include info on what makes a GOOD draft, what makes a draft READABLE and easy to implement. OAM session was awesome. Presenters were quite good, but it would be nice to have a User point of view.	Apr 11, 2012 1:44 AM
6	More on networking technologies (perhaps including recent developments inside and outside the IETF); less on meta-tutorials about how to deal with IETF meetings	Apr 10, 2012 8:07 PM
7	could not attend because had other meetings at the same time	Apr 10, 2012 7:35 PM
8	The Newcomers training is really close to the Tao of the IETF. Is it really usefull?	Apr 10, 2012 2:29 PM
9	Working Group Chair training.	Apr 10, 2012 1:58 PM
10	Network Economics	Apr 10, 2012 1:41 PM
11	Newcomers' training class was so early that I missed 60% of it despite coming from only 3.5 hours away that day. Other people I know had the same problem - fairly local, sensible to travel on the day, but 1pm is asking for a very early departure.	Apr 10, 2012 1:18 PM
12	Would have liked to attend the Operations and Management tutorial but the safe in my hotel room was locked when I checked in and I was delayed trying to fix this problem with the Concorde so I missed that tutorial.	Apr 10, 2012 1:09 PM
13	I wanted to attend the "Tools for Creating Internet-Drafts", but ended up with a conflict; I'll try again next time is offered.	Apr 10, 2012 1:05 PM
14	Haven't had time to participate. Sorry. Tool tutorial was very useful when I attended it couple of meetings ago.	Apr 10, 2012 12:30 PM
15	I missed the meetecho meeting because of a scheduling conflict but would attend in the future if this session is offered again.	Apr 10, 2012 12:14 PM
16	Privacy would be good.	Apr 10, 2012 12:10 PM
17	Two sessions clashed - new comers training & tools for creating internet drafts. I wanted to attend both-but ended up attending only the first one due to the clash.	Apr 10, 2012 11:58 AM
18	While i did not attend the sessions, I did recommend it to a few newcomers who all commented they were very glad they attended as they found the sessions very helpful!	Apr 10, 2012 11:42 AM

1	Administrative was awesome. We don't need to hear from this Burger guy any more :-)))	Apr 11, 2012 4:42 F
2	I continue to wonder what we can remove from the plenaries.	Apr 11, 2012 11:21
3	Why can't people control themselves at the mike lines	Apr 11, 2012 9:17 A
4	Live video stream	Apr 11, 2012 1:44 A
5	consolidate. Many of the reports could be made available online, and then attendees could simply ask questions.	Apr 11, 2012 12:50
6	No records are provided.	Apr 10, 2012 8:58 F
7	Less administrivia in the technical plenary; make the administrative plenary more newcomer-friendly (this is my fourth meeting and I still get lost amongst the acronyms).	Apr 10, 2012 8:07 F
8	Turn the lights up.	Apr 10, 2012 7:25 F
9	Have tables in the meetin room.	Apr 10, 2012 6:02 F
10	Have only one plenary 2) Rotate some of the reports: IOAC once a year RFC editor once a year report from IETF chair every other meeting, etc.	Apr 10, 2012 4:10 F
11	Shorter plenaries would be good. They tend to drag on and the quality of the presentations is not in line with the participation numbers or time. I think there are better ways to use the time.	Apr 10, 2012 1:58 F
12	Some meeting rooms were too cramped.	Apr 10, 2012 1:41 F
13	If we're short on meeting slots, I think the plenaries can go. They don't serve any useful purpose	Apr 10, 2012 1:41 F
14	continue having discussions of topics that affect the entire ietf community	Apr 10, 2012 1:25 F
15	There is just too much presentation of stuff. Given the pressures for an additional track, more WG meeting time, &c., the plenaries should be slashed first. Why does the IAOC, Trust, &c. need to present all that? Can't it be prepared as webcasts that are available (say) an hour before open mic time? We could cut one plenary down to an hour of "open mic for admin", "open mic for IESG", and "open mic for IAB". Have host presos and technical topic in another hour. We have just found a free 2 hour block.	Apr 10, 2012 12:47
16	Avoid Paris!	Apr 10, 2012 12:23
17	Hotel security review prior to the meetings, just to get them alerted that this sort of thing is particularly important to future business.	Apr 10, 2012 12:22
18	Nice job on selecting the panel for the Technical plenary.	Apr 10, 2012 12:22
19	We need to come up with the right balance of routine reports at the plenaries, particularly the admin one. Much of what's presented there can best be done as a very brief summary, with details available on the web site.	Apr 10, 2012 12:21

Page 3, Q24. How do you rate the Plenaries?
20	keep having good speakers	Apr 10, 2012 12:14 PM
21	Shorten them. Let folks submit questions via email as well as open-mic and dedicate some time for those just before open-mic.	Apr 10, 2012 12:10 PM
22	Merge?	Apr 10, 2012 12:09 PM
23	Administrative plenary is too administrative. Technical talks are always welcome!	Apr 10, 2012 11:43 AM
24	I _really_ wish we would not use plenary time on administrative reports that could easily be available online. We're already running short of meeting time.	Apr 10, 2012 11:41 AM
25	The administrative plenary always seems like a 15 minute meeting crammed into 7 hours.	Apr 10, 2012 11:37 AM

Page 3,	Q25. Tell us what changes you would like at the Meetings.
1	Overall meeting costs is becoming hard to sustain at 3 meetings per year - Summer flights to N America are noticeably more costly for the peak summer time of year and that will likely impact ability to travel to next meeting or the following, given limited budget.	Apr 16, 2012 6:47 AM
2	No IPv6-related sessions Monday first thing in the morning. No more IPv4 without extra pain.	Apr 14, 2012 2:02 PM
3	More free beer;) But, I think we're working on that.	Apr 12, 2012 6:41 PM
4	Do we really, really, really need to have the Administrative plenary? Can't we just use GENAREA if we really, really, really need a venue to read the numbers to JCK?	Apr 11, 2012 4:42 PM
5	I was good overall, but some of the meeting agenda and information for newcomers sent late.	Apr 11, 2012 3:01 PM
6	Friday continues to be dismal. Don't really have a good idea, but it feels like South Dakota in the winter	Apr 11, 2012 2:07 PM
7	Place water dispensers outside of meeting rooms, provide the possibilty to get coffee in an appropriate amount of time - the starbucks was totally overrun	Apr 11, 2012 8:34 AM
8	Let me make just a positive comment: IETF is professionally run and the meeting venue meets expectations. Just one note for now: Generally, more healthy food options (read: fruit) in breaks would be nice.	Apr 11, 2012 2:28 AM
9	There MUST be a focus on people being respectful and having professional courtesy. Passionate debate is fine, welcomed. The bullying and intimidation is ridiculous. In many working groups loud=right. It's sad. The IETF will end up not getting any new blood if the mood an attitude is adjusted. Many members have a very bad case of Bastard Operator Syndrome and have been doing this for WAY too long.	Apr 11, 2012 1:44 AM
10	Re-introduction of social event; improve beverage handling during breaks	Apr 11, 2012 12:57 AM
11	support addition of beer-n-gear style event as an alternative to a paid social or the welcome reception	Apr 11, 2012 12:50 AM
12	It is fine. People are tending to speak too fast.	Apr 10, 2012 8:58 PM
13	I would prefer fewer parallel sessions, spread over more days there were several sessions I could not attend due to being scheduled simultaneously with others I needed to be at.	Apr 10, 2012 8:07 PM
14	more usable break-out spaces where small teams can work	Apr 10, 2012 7:18 PM
15	more facilities (chairs, tables, poweroutlets) outside meeting rooms to support group/drafting/discussion meetings	Apr 10, 2012 6:28 PM
16	A more thorough check of the venue including check if the claimed hotel rating matches the actual. That is not the case for the Concorde for example. Do not understand me wrong, I often stay in hotels that rate 1 or 2 stars but are honest about that. A venue that is intentionally disonest in their advertising is likely to	Apr 10, 2012 5:31 PM

	cause other trouble later on.
17	Make very sure there are places outside the meeting rooms for people to sit. This is obvious and imperative and yet has been trouble more than once during recent meetings.	Apr 10, 2012 5:07 PM
18	11:30 lunch is too early.	Apr 10, 2012 4:53 PM
19	Different hotel, forward network reconnaissance. Larger roomsMPLS was standing/sitting room only. Better remote attendance (audio/webex for every session).	Apr 10, 2012 3:49 PM
20	No video streaming? Aren't we in the XXI century already?	Apr 10, 2012 3:43 PM
21	free T shirts	Apr 10, 2012 3:43 PM
22	Nothing specific.	Apr 10, 2012 3:40 PM
23	T-Shirts. Do I need to say more?	Apr 10, 2012 3:19 PM
24	change nothing :D	Apr 10, 2012 2:29 PM
25	give us 10 minutes between slots. Sometimes I think we had only 5.	Apr 10, 2012 2:02 PM
26	Use Hilton Hotels, shorten plenaries.	Apr 10, 2012 1:58 PM
27	More sensitivity to people who are not 'the old guard' (the scim BoF was a notable exception in this respect). Altho I personally might consider myself 'the old guard' I find it grates to hear 'the old guard' consuming a large part of meeting time (esp. plenaries) with back-chat and informality that must bewilder newbies (e.g. referring to people by first names must be completely opaque to newbies).	Apr 10, 2012 1:41 PM
28	I am quite pleased with how the meetings operate. I guess my only comment would be that it would be great if there was more regular access to drinks like water, coffee and tea throughout the day, rather than just having them available at snack times.	Apr 10, 2012 1:26 PM
29	I did like the suggestion to shorten the plenaries, especially since the meeting slots were so crowded.	Apr 10, 2012 1:14 PM
30	Two screens in every room, with Jabber log on one.	Apr 10, 2012 1:12 PM
31	I think every meeting should have the t-shirt design contest. That was the best shirt since IETF 74.	Apr 10, 2012 12:58 PM
32	List other cheaper choices for hotel closer to the venue.	Apr 10, 2012 12:48 PM
33	Concorde hotel was too expensive and rooms were of poor quality. IETF should negotiate better rate at better hotel.	Apr 10, 2012 12:48 PM
34	Have coffee available at all times. Don't have venue employees get in the way of getting coffee (ridiculously long queues). As is, I always have to bring a thermos. That hurts my back (and tastes awful).	Apr 10, 2012 12:44 PM

35	More regional diversity. Please note increasing number of participants from Asia, yet the next meeting in Asia is in 2015 Also, I would prefer that meeting be held in cheaper locations. For example, I suppose there are other more reasonably priced locations in France than Paris.	Apr 10, 2012 12:30 P
36	More Chairs & tables in open spaces, near power, etc. There was a lot of these at the Palais, could have been more because they were always quite busy! It's a good feature to ensure at all IETF meetings.	Apr 10, 2012 12:25 P
37	Favor Prague!	Apr 10, 2012 12:23 P
38	Lunch slot scheduling is becoming a problem. The security directorate met opposite an ISOC session on Security during the Tue lunch slot (I'm not a SecDir member, but a colleague who was inconvenienced by this is). Similarly, the sponsor presentation on storage was scheduled for Thu lunch opposite the Transport Directorate meeting, which is the IETF area in which storage work is done. This is probably a symptom of a larger problem of not enough hours/day or days/week for everything that should happen during an IETF meeting week.	Apr 10, 2012 12:22 P
39	Stop scheduling Friday afternoon meetings. It is preferable to have the meeting end by noon on Friday.	Apr 10, 2012 12:21 P
40	Lunch on Friday. During lunch time. Like, noon or so. The current Friday schedule has been brutal I have to choose between missing meetings or showing up but being so sugar crashed that I can't effectively participate. Neither is a good outcome.	Apr 10, 2012 12:15 P
41	Better food and beverage. Snacks in the morning and afternoon, constant coffee / water availability throughout the day.	Apr 10, 2012 12:14 P
42	Even though I never take the IETF hotel, I think it is valuable to have the meeting place with a joint lobby for the hotel and the meeting place. When it is not the case, it is harder to meet people that tend to spread between hotels and meeting venue.	Apr 10, 2012 12:14 P
43	Input from the attendees rather than chairs about time slot conflicts. Chairs should actually chair the meetings and keep discussions on track.	Apr 10, 2012 12:13 P
44	Make pick hotels that do not charge non-refundable booking fees!	Apr 10, 2012 12:11 F
45	Have 'em all in Dublin.	Apr 10, 2012 12:10 F
46	Some meeting rooms were overcrowded. I could not find a seat for a couple of them.	Apr 10, 2012 11:49 A
47	Reduce plenary time.	Apr 10, 2012 11:48 A
48	more in room seat space (!= more seats!)	Apr 10, 2012 11:46 A
49	Pretty good! Some WGs could be more efficient. Glad to see us doing more for remote attendees.	Apr 10, 2012 11:44 A
50	I understand the need to charge for t-shirts and I think the purchase and delivery system worked very well (THANKS!) However, as I was registering, I saw at	Apr 10, 2012 11:43 A least two other registrants who were apparently not familiar with the need to purchase their t-shirt in advance, and as a result they didn't get one. There must be a better way to notify/explain this procedure to non-English speakers.

51	Better food options in the meeting area near to registration desk even if it is expensive.	Apr 10, 2012 11:43 AM
52	Move back to having a single plenary. Two nites of 3 hour plenaries is just too much. Have the IAB schedule the tech topic for lunch on Monday and combine the admin aspects of IAB with mgmt plenary on Wed.	Apr 10, 2012 11:41 AM
53	Better control of air conditioning - it was too cold	Apr 10, 2012 11:40 AM
54	Clearly states whether Friday afternoon is part of the IETF meeting or not. And don't change it everytime (based on location??)	Apr 10, 2012 11:39 AM
55	Provide an on-line mobile-friendly tool to help know where meetings are, who is participating where, etc	Apr 10, 2012 11:39 AM
56	Done by 630pm every day. Done by noon on Friday. Make it work. Just say "no" to people's requests for more time.	Apr 10, 2012 11:37 AM
