Editorial Errata

- RPC is actively reviewing Editorial errata (per IESG Statement about Processing Errata)
- RPC is sending any reports that we are unable to verify to stream managers for further review. For IETF, they are directed to ADs.
AUTH48 experiment using GitHub: process overview

RPC continues to explore use of GitHub as an option for AUTH48.

- RFC Editor owns the repo
- Questions added as issues
- Issues resolved by replying to comments or via pull requests
- Repo archived and made private after RFC published
- RPC requests feedback from participants to refine process

We are identifying good candidates, familiarizing ourselves with GitHub, training the editors, and improving our process.

Further GitHub experimentation

- Good candidates need to meet the following criteria:
  - XML source file
  - Author experience with GitHub
  - Author, Doc Shepherd, AD willingness to participate
  - 25 pages or less
  - Not part of a cluster
  - Not time-sensitive
- If interested, inform your AD and rfc-editor@rfc-editor.org when the document enters the queue.
- Note that trials are limited; we will let you know if your document has been selected.
AUTH48 Archive

- Proposed public archive of AUTH48 mails (as detailed on 24 Feb)
  Awaiting decision after the comment period ends (24 March)
