New on the IETF 85 Network

- Implementation SDR route origin checking using the Resource PKI
- Validating available signatures, and preferring valid signed routes
- Advertising new official address space:
31.130.224.0/20, 31.133.128.0/18,
2001:67c:1230::/46, 2001:67c:370::/48
- Using unofficial route origin attestations (ROAs) for this address space
- Challenge: official ROAs in Orlando

Tao of the IETF

- The Tao of the IETF is now a web page:
<http://www.ietf.org/tao.html>
- Five translations are now available:
<http://www.ietf.org/tao-translations.html>
- These languages represent the top five non-English languages spoken by people that came to recent IETF meetings
- I hope that these documents help new IETF attendees learn about IETF culture

Proposed New NOTE WELL

- The IESG is considering a revision to the NOTE WELL text
- Please review and comment:
<http://www.ietf.org/mail-archive/web/ietf-announce/current/msg10865.html>

Antitrust / Anticompetitive

- The IETF does not have a formal antitrust policy
- The ANTITRUST BOF concluded that a formal policy was not needed; however, educational material is needed so that all IETF participants are aware of the the law
- Please review the educational material:
<http://www.ietf.org/playground/antitrust-faq.html>
- Please send comments to ietf@ietf.org
