

IETF Hackathon

IETF 96, July 16-17, Berlin, Germany

Goals

- Running Code (RFC 6982)
- Open Source
- Speed and Relevance of IETF
- Collaborate and Learn
- Have Fun
- Cookies!
- BEER!!!

Presentations Posters

Stats

- 5th hackathon
- 150+ hackers
- 20+ projects
- 15+ technologies
- 794 espressos

Project Presentations – 3 minutes

1. Problem you are solving?
2. Plan to solve it?
3. Achievement, benefits to IETF work/communities?

Winners

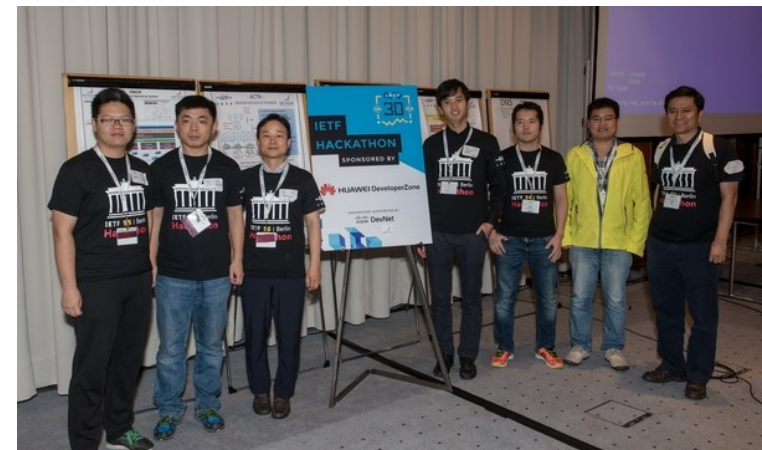

- Best Overall
 - ILA - IPv6 Identifier Locator Addressing
- Best Feedback to Groups
 - PCE-based Central Control
 - I2RS - Interface to Routing System

Working

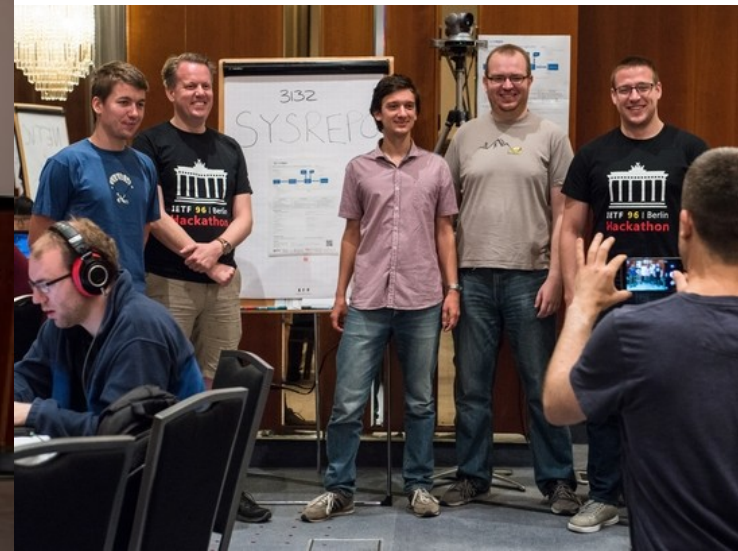

IETF Hackathon

Winners

- Most Importance to IETF
 - YANG / NETCONF / RESTCONF
 - YANG Model Catalog
 - sysrepo - NETCONF/YANG for any Unix/Linux app

Winners

- Best Interop Testing for Imminent Deployment
 - TLS 1.3
- Most Progress during the Hackathon
 - BGP-Flowspec / BGP-LS
 - IoT Bootstrapping for Noobs
- Best Ecosystem Engagement
 - DNS / DNSSEC / DPRIVE / DANE

IETF 97 Hackathon

- Seoul, Korea
- November 12-13, 2016